

British Drilling Association Personal & Commercial Legal, Tax & Counselling Helpline

The BDA is pleased to announce that it has partnered with HMCA to offer (through ARAG plc) members access to 24/7 legal advice, tax and counselling helplines.

Legal Advice

Experienced advisors can explain complex legal matters in everyday language, and have specialist knowledge in the areas of employment, regulatory matters, personal injury, medical negligence, property, contract disputes and consumer law to name but a few.

Advice about the law in England and Wales is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Legal advice for the other countries is available 9am - 5pm, Monday to Friday, excluding public and bank holidays. Members calling outside of these times will get a call-back.

Personal & Commercial Tax Advice

ARAG's tax advice helplines provide confidential advice on any tax matters affecting your UK tax affairs.

This includes advice on self-assessment, income and corporation tax, tax credits, stamp duty, capital gains and inheritance tax and many other taxation issues.

Advice about VAT and PAYE compliance is also available for businesses.

Counselling helpline

ARAG will provide your members, or if your members are businesses, their staff; with a confidential counselling service over the phone. Experienced counsellors are available to discuss any issue and offer completely confidential support and advice at any time.

Counsellors can help callers to cope with stress, anxiety, relationships breakdown and bereavement. They can provide information about relevant professional or voluntary bodies which offer practical help and support. This service does not provided face to face counselling sessions.
